

ENCAMPMENT OF VETERANS ENDS

Women Are Hobsonized by Commander-in-Chief Nevius During the Evening.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Utah is Complimented by the General For Its Work in Furthering Cause of the Grand Army.

The twenty-seventh annual encampment of the department of Utah, G. A. R., was concluded last night with a banquet and a good time. At the afternoon session, the following officers for the ensuing year were chosen:

Lucien H. Smyth, department commander.
W. P. Rowe, senior vice department commander.
William Crome, junior vice department commander.
Rev. W. C. Yeazey, chaplain.
Joseph Milliron, medical director.
J. J. Cortez and John Geiger, delegates to the national encampment.
J. H. Wolcott and William Landy, alternate delegates to the national encampment.

Council of administration—W. D. Gaby, post No. 1; William Crossman, post No. 3; A. H. Foling, post No. 4; Elias Price, post No. 5; J. K. Bishop, post No. 6.
Thomas Harris, assistant adjutant general and assistant quartermaster general.

Candidate to be returned to national encampment as senior vice commander, William H. Bostaph.
The Daughters of Veterans also were in session, and chose these officers: Mary B. Lawrence, president.
Mossie Roby, senior vice president.
Lizzie Slesater, junior vice president.
W. Pinkerton, chaplain.
Bessie Day, treasurer.
Eddie L. Keam, secretary.
Gada Richards, patriarchal instructor.

Della Sperry, musician.
Lydia M. Cody, guide.
Ray Redmond, guard.
Miss Armstrong, assistant guard.
Trustees—Mary Watrous, Bessie Boyce, Nellie Robinson.
Color bearers—First, Bessie Smith; second, Mamie Slesater; third, Roberta Slesater; fourth, Edith Cassidy.

WOMEN ALL HOBSONIZED.

The evening ceremonies were particularly interesting. They included the installation of the newly elected officers, and a banquet. A feature entirely unprovided for, but springing as a surprise for the ladies immediately interested, was an osculatory feat on the part of Commander-in-Chief Nevius who was present, the objects of this style of saluting the newly chosen lady officers. The latter did not appear averse to the "trying ordeal," in fact as the command was given for them to "fall into line" for the kissing stunt, they did so smilingly.

The commander-in-chief gave a sketch of the struggles between the blue and the gray in the time of the great unpleasantness, remarking his gratification that the angry feeling between the north and south was fast disappearing. In hastening this, the organization of the women is proving a valuable factor.

In the last year, the deaths in the ranks of the G. A. R. numbered 10,000, an increase of 4,000 over the record of the previous year. The speaker held that now there is no north, south, east or west, but all one common country. The old soldiers of the confederate army had forgotten the bitterness of the past, except in sections where it is kept alive by the Daughters of the Confederacy. Gen. Nevius praised the women's organizations in the G. A. R., the W. R. C. having raised over $4,000, 000 for the support of disabled veterans and widows. He said "The record is that the Utah department had the greater representation at the national encampment at Toledo by far. Nearly 40 per cent of its membership was represented in the meeting yesterday. This is a showing which perhaps has never been made by any other state. The Utah department boasts that it has a larger number of members from every state—that is, those who enlisted from the various states—than any other state in the Union. For example, the James H. McKean post in this city has in its membership a representative from every state save Rhode Island.

At the conclusion of Gen. Nevius' speech, Mrs. Plummer sang "The Flag Without a Stain." As an encore she sang "Fighting on the Old Cause Ground," the audience joining in the chorus. In addition to the speech of Commander Nevius, the following gave short addresses: Col. Frank M. Sterrett, Col. George E. Squares, M. M. Keith and Capt. P. Edward Corcoran.

Commander Nevius will leave today for his home at Red Bank, N. J.

GOVERNOR CUTLER'S VIEW.

Utah's Former Executive Protests Against Hobsonesque Performance.

Editor Deseret News.
If the statement made in the morning papers is correct that a kissing bee was held at the installation of the officers of the Daughters of Veterans yesterday, and that the women were apparently not averse to that part of the ceremony, that a number of other women took advantage of the occasion to fall into the kissing line and kiss the so-called veterans of many battles, I wish to enter my protest against such a libel on the women and especially the married ones who took part in it. They may have fallen into line at the suggestion of the men but they would not suggest it, and probably the colonel was much disliking kissing some of the women who fell into line. If there is to be one moral standard for men and women, women must start the movement by refusing to take part in such questionable proceedings, as some of our most men are willing to take advantage of such offers. As a married man I don't believe in this promiscuous kissing and I certainly would not think it proper for my wife to kiss other men. It is a mistaken idea that it shows any patriotism to the grand cause that the old soldiers fought for, and it would seem to a person not taking part in it that there is considerable sickly sentimentality in such proceedings.

JOHN C. CUTLER.

The shining spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferers from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Godsend, and no wonder. The thick, foamy discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c. Including spraying tube or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

NURSE CLASS ENTERS UPON BROADER SPHERE

Having Completed Three Years of Training, They Are Graduated With Impressive Ceremony.

A large number of friends gathered at the Eighteenth ward chapel last evening for the graduation exercises of the 100 class of nurses of the Dr. Grove's Latter-day Saints hospital. The hall was comfortably filled and after the exercises in the chapel, which ended shortly after 9 o'clock, all present adjourned to the Whitney hall, where refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

The state of honor on the stand were occupied by Bishop C. W. Nibley, Orrin P. Allen and David A. Smith, all so Dr. Joseph Richards, Secretary John Wells and Franklin S. Richards, who, in a short appropriate speech, referred to the faithfulness of the nurses in their task of three years and the gratification all felt in their present success. He also spoke of the importance of the callings and wished them much success in the future.

The diplomas were presented by Dr. Joseph Richards, and as each name was called the happy recipient received the object of three years of hard work and applause from the audience. Immediately afterwards flowers were distributed, many of the young ladies receiving literally an armful of beautiful blossoms.

The music of the evening was furnished by the C. C. Clive orchestra, which opened with the overture "Cairn of Rags." and during the evening rendered a number of choice selections. Those contributing the orchestra were: W. C. Clive and David A. Smith, Jr., C. J. Paulsen, Joseph Clive, H. J. Sims, Clifford Clive, Papez Dunyon and Vivian Saw.

The decorations were carried out under the direction of the hospital gardener, assisted by the nurses. The stand was lavishly and tastefully adorned with white vases of flowers and the stand and piano, and potted flowers occupied other niches in the corner.

The songs of the evening were: "M. J. Brins" who sang "The Light of Heaven's Day," "Mr. Brins" sang "Before the Dawn," and "Sing This a Song of Love."

Among the physicians of the city who were present were Gen. Drs. Stephen L. Richards, G. Richards, C. G. Plummer, E. E. Wilcox, Stauffer, E. H. Allen, G. W. Minton, W. P. Beer, A. E. Irvine and Dr. J. W. Skoldfeld.

NOBLE WOMAN TO BE BURIED SUNDAY

In Passing of Amanda J. Ross Ramsey, An Unfailing Worker for Good Deeds.

Mrs. Amanda J. Ross Ramsey whose death has been announced in the city papers and whose picture accompanies this sketch can be numbered among the noble of the earth. Her life has been one of good deeds, self denial, and unselfish devotion to the good of others. Being left motherless at the age of 10 her trials in life began early. Much of the care and responsibility of a young sister and brother were upon her. Jan. 12, 1863, she was married to George W. Ramsey, who in September following enlisted in Company 1, One Hundred and Thirtieth Illinois Volunteer Infantry as a musician and served till the close of the Civil war.

In January, 1863, smallpox raged in Indiana. Mrs. Ramsey and her baby boy were afflicted with this dread disease which also caused the death of her father. After recovering she went among her friends nursing the sick or caring for the dead. The patriotism of this noble woman was manifested by the aid she rendered the soldiers in the field, by heading movements to prepare and send clothing, bandages, food, etc., to them. Recently she was a member of the Reynolds circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R.

In 1883 Mrs. Ramsey with her husband and family of three sons and four daughters, came to Utah, settling first in Payson, afterwards in Provo, then in Salt Lake City where Mr. Ramsey died Feb. 2, 1906. Since her husband's death she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris of this city.

She was a devoted Latter-day Saint. Many years of her life were devoted to nursing among the sick and the dying.

Funeral services will be held Sunday, May 2, at 12 o'clock, from the Fourteenth ward chapel. The remains may be viewed Sunday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 at the residence of George Q. Morris, 127 south Second West.

VOTE ON STATE CAPITOL.

Notices on Special Election June 8 Are Being Prepared.

Notices for the special election to vote on an additional tax levy of one mill for the erection of a state capitol building are being prepared today by Governor William Spry and Secretary of State Tingey. The election will be held on June 8 and the law passed by the legislature for the raising of funds to build a state building provides for the levy of one mill for 15 successive years.

Under the law the counties will have to pay for the election but this will be repaid by the state, if the election carries, out of the capitol building fund. It is estimated that the election in Salt Lake county will cost about $12,000.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

The announcement was made yesterday at the University of Utah, that the valuable fossil collection of Robert Forrester, the geologist and mining engineer, has been donated to the university. The gift is considered to be one of the most valuable of its kind in the United States, and out of gratitude to Mr. Forrester for his gift, it is also announced that he has been made honorary curator of the university museum.

Dr. Fred J. Pack views the gift with much pleasure as he anticipates that it will give a stimulus to studies in paleontology, of which work he has charge. Mr. Forrester has also promised to lend his assistance to the work of still further increasing the large collection of fossils which the university now has.

Miss Lucy Van Cott will spend four days in Ogden, where she will visit Ogden high school, the School for the Deaf and Dumb, the State Industrial school and Weber stake academy.

The names of Thomas Sneddon and Clarence Gates have been sent to the athletic council for the position of assistant manager of athletics.

Abraham Flexner, representing the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching, visited the university of Utah yesterday as the guest of Dr. Kingsbury, Dean Cummings and Dr. Sundwall. The distinguished visitor, who is a brother of Simon Flexner, head of the Rockefeller institute, Chicago, and the discoverer of antitoxin for spinal meningitis, greatly praised the action of the faculty of the local university for establishing a school of medicine, and especially for making a two year's college work required. Such an action, he said, will make every one competent to enter any school of the United States. Mr. Flexner was entertained last evening at the University club by Dr. Sundwall, after which he took the Los Angeles limited for the coast, where he will examine streams are three inches lower. It is feared, however, if the sun comes out tomorrow that the streams will rise and cause considerable damage.

The senior class of the university met yesterday to consider plans for a suitable object to leave as a memento. A committee consisting of James Carlson, Ralph Hartley, Jesse Walker and Louis Wallace, was appointed to obtain estimates on the cost of several suggestions and report at a meeting of the class in the latter part of May.

Mr. Hartley, manager of the debating team, is said to be unable to collect the guarantee of $200, which is due the Utah team as their expense money on the trip to Boulder, Colo., some two months ago.

Forty members of the Ogden High school were visitors at the university yesterday afternoon.

On North Temple street the snow forced the contractors on the aqueduct to give up work and it is probable that the work will now have to be abandoned. The ditches which are carrying off the water from City Creek are full, and at the slightest rise the stream will have to be turned down into the excavation for the conduit.

Camp's lane between Ninth North street and North Temple street is not suffering from the floods. Below Seventeenth West, however, there are great lakes of water and to the north and to the south of the district.

Saturday Last Day of the Biggest Rug

Sale We've Had in Many and

Many a Day

We have cut the prices low enough to bring you out early. Upon reaching the store you will find makes that are known all over the country. There is Whitall's, there's Bigelow's, there's Smith's—others equally as well known. The carpets and rugs are all new. The patterns are this year's.

These carpets and rugs are worth every cent of the regular prices which we ask. True, the prices are little lower than the same makes generally sell at. We have been selling at these prices for two months; after the sale the prices will be restored.

The stock is big. It is well displayed. The light is fine. There will be no trouble to pick out a satisfactory design. What an opportunity for the builder of the new home.

With all the building that is going on these strong reductions will be most welcome. For we have to watch our dollars. And those who watch them best appreciate our sales. For the saving is worth while. And after the carpets and rugs shall have been bought it will be said: "I got this at a bargain at Keith-O'Brien's." Which will give our future sales a solid footing in the minds of watchful customers. Come early and enjoy first selection.
